

AYLA MCENEANY-CRAGG

I am a social sciences student entering my fourth year at the University of Victoria in the fall. I have experience in ecological restoration through my program/volunteer work and am passionate about sustainability. I also have experience in the restaurant industry and retail.

WORK EXPERIENCE

CURRENT

EDUCATIONAL FARM CREW: STABLE HARVEST FARM

Responsibilities include: leading camps through activities, caring for farm animals, harvesting produce, landscaping.

2023 - 2025

RETAIL: BILLY WOULD DESIGNS

Responsibilities included: Opening/closing store, interacting with customers, cleaning, using POS, stocking/pricing merchandise.

2021 – 2022

SERVER & HOST: WHITE SPOT

Responsibilities included: Interacting with customers, answering the phone, seating guests, packing takeout orders, running food, taking orders, using POS, bussing tables, bartending, washing dishes.

EDUCATION

PRESENT

FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES, UNIVERSITY OF VICTORIA

I am currently a student working towards a bachelor's degree, doubling majoring in Environmental Studies and Gender Studies (B.A.) at the University of Victoria, graduating in 2026. I am a member of my school's ecological restoration club and surfing club!

2021

GRADUATE, CARSON GRAHAM SECONDARY SCHOOL

International Baccalaureate Program (Grades 8, 9, & 10), Community Initiatives

OTHER SKILLS/EXPERIENCE

- Music: Guitar
- Volunteering: Ecological restoration